Dear Parents,

This year the staff and I are excited to announce the official unveiling of the Portrait of a Cawley Middle School Learner. Last year the staff worked hard to identify five key attributes students will be able to exemplify during their time at Cawley. Our goal as a staff is to prepare students to be successful in high school, college, careers and in their personal growth using the Portrait of a Cawley Learner as guide.

The five key attributes of the Portrait of a Cawley Learner are:

- Communication
- Collaboration
- Perseverance
- Problem Solving
- Responsibility

Please click on the Portrait of a Cawley Learner link to view the school's graphic. In addition, please click on each word on the side to view the descriptors for each attribute.

Beginning in September and continuing throughout the school year all staff will be actively working to provide students with strategies that will guide them in exemplifying "Communication, Collaboration, Perseverance, Problem Solving and Responsibility."

The staff and I are looking forward to the start of the school year and using the Portrait of a Cawley Learner as the school's foundation for continuing to "Make A Mark and Make A Difference" in our students' lives this year and in the future.

Sincerely,
